

Guidance on Timing of Ecological Surveys

This chart provides information on those species commonly encountered in development projects. It is intended as an overview and is for guidance only. No action should be taken without seeking professional advice. No responsibility for loss occasioned by any person acting on the information in this chart can be accepted by Baker Shepherd Gillespie.